Our Terms and Agreements:

All course fees are for the supply of timbers, equipment usage, safety equipment & safety instruction, tuition, course notes, accessories & general insurances.

All course fees / instalments will be paid prior to commencement of your term class on above specified day.

Your class will be deferred till the next week if payment is unable to be made, or until such a time that you can make your payment and continue with the course.

Course hours are 10am to 4pm, Night class is 6pm to 9pm and lunch is 1/2 hour. (Times are subject to slight change)

If at anytime you are unable to make these hours, notification is required to Chris Wynne at TLG the day prior.

If at anytime that you do not return to the course between the periods of the agreed course fee instalments you will be issued a 14-day invoice for the amount owing. (This covers materials used and tutoring)

All our outstanding accounts after the 14-day invoice go to a debt collector.

I further understand that at all times the Guitar is the property of Thomas Lloyd Guitars until all payments are made in accordance to the Course Fee & Instalment Agreement. (The guitar is kept on site at all times throughout the course for humidity level reasons)

Please note: You may be required to make up for the extra hours after your set course dates.

This can be for various reasons when working with natural products such as timber; also human fault can lead to time delays. In order to help you finish your hand crafted Instrument Thomas Lloyd Guitars will co-ordinate with you additional times after the set course dates.

I _____ agree to all the above terms and agreements set out by Thomas Lloyd Guitars School of Guitar Making.
